

Form ADV Part 3 – Client Relationship Summary

Date: 07/15/2026

Item 1: Introduction

WEDMONT PRIVATE CAPITAL is an investment adviser offering advisory accounts and services. Brokerage and investment advisory services and fees differ, and it is important that you understand the differences. This document gives you a summary of the types of services and fees we offer. Please visit www.investor.gov/CRS for free, simple tools to research firms and financial professionals, as well as educational materials about broker-dealers, investment advisers, and investing.

Item 2: Relationships and Services

Questions to ask us: Given my financial situation, should I choose an investment advisory service? Why or why not? How will you choose investments to recommend to me? What is your relevant experience, including your licenses, education and other qualifications? What do these qualifications mean?

What investment services and advice can you provide me? Our firm primarily offers the following investment advisory services to retail clients: portfolio management (we review your portfolio, investment strategy, and investments); financial planning (we assess your financial situation and provide advice to meet your goals); selection of other advisers (we select a third-party adviser for you to use). As part of our standard services, we typically monitor client accounts on a monthly basis. Our firm offers discretionary advisory services (where our firm makes the decision regarding the purchase or sale of investments). We limit the types of investments that are recommended since not every type of investment vehicle is needed to create an appropriate portfolio, but do not limit these investments to proprietary products. Our minimum account size is $1,000,000. Please also see our Form ADV Part 2A ("Brochure"), specifically Items 4 & 7.

Item 3: Fees, Costs, Conflicts, and Standard of Conduct

Questions to ask us: Help me understand how these fees and costs might affect my investments. If I give you $1,000,000 to invest, how much will go to fees and costs, and how much will be invested for me? How might your conflicts of interest affect me, and how will you address them?

What fees will I pay? Our clients pay us a fixed, flat fee. We do not charge additional fees for ancillary services – these are all included in the flat fee. The most any client pays us is $15,000 a year. All fees are paid quarterly in arrears. You pay our fees even if you do not have any transactions and the advisory fee paid to us does not vary based on the type of investments selected. Please also see Items 4, 5, 6, 7 & 8 of our Brochure. Some clients have multiple legal entities that each pay us a separate fee, but in these cases, each entity is its own client.

Some investments (e.g., mutual funds, variable annuities, etc.) impose additional fees (e.g., transactional fees and product-level fees) that reduce the value of your investment over time. The same goes for any additional fees you pay to a custodian. Additionally, you will pay transaction fees, if applicable, when we buy or sell an investment for your account. You will pay fees and costs whether you make or lose money on your investments. Fees and costs will reduce any amount of money you make on your investments over time. Please make sure you understand what fees and costs you are paying. Please also see our Brochure for additional details.

What are your legal obligations to me when acting as my investment adviser? How else does your firm make money and what conflicts of interest do you have? When we act as your investment adviser, we have to act in your best interest and not put our interest ahead of yours. At the same time, the way we make money creates some conflicts with your interests. You should understand and ask us about these conflicts because they can affect the investment advice we provide you.

How do your financial professionals make money? We and our financial professionals receive cash compensation from the advisory services we provide to you because of the advisory fees we receive from you. Please also see Item 10 of our Brochure for additional details.

Item 4: Disciplinary History

Questions to ask us: As a financial professional, do you have any disciplinary history? For what type of conduct?

Do you or your financial professionals have legal or disciplinary history? No, we do not have legal and disciplinary events. Visit <https://www.investor.gov/> for a free, simple search tool to research us and our financial professionals.

Item 5: Additional Information

Questions to ask us: Who is my primary contact person? Is he or she a representative of an investment adviser or a broker-dealer? Who can I talk to if I have concerns about how this person is treating me?

For additional information on our advisory services, see our Brochure available at <https://adviserinfo.sec.gov/firm/summary/305815> and any individual brochure supplement your representative provides. Exhibit A – Material Changes to Client Relationship Summary

We have made the following changes to our Client Relationship Summary since its prior version dated 1/5/2025:

- Effective 7/15/26, we modified our fee to $15,000 per year for any client who signs a client agreement after this date.
- We modified Item 3 to make clear that the only compensation we receive is the flat fee that our clients pay us.
